

SPACEUS OPENING AT THE ROSLINDALE SUBSTATION

SATURDAY, JULY 14
8AM - 4PM

Roslindale Village Yoga @ the Substation

Led by Alejandro Lazo

7:45 am

A light, 60-minute Vinyasa flow class led by local instructor Alejandro Lazo. A limited selection of mats, blocks, and blankets are available, but participants are encouraged to bring their own.

$20 at the door, with discounts for Roslindale Community Center and Spaceus members.

Natural Painting Workshop

Led by Alexandra Ford

9.30-11.30am

Drop-in workshop! Join artist and educator Alexandra Ford for an exploration in painting with vegetables, fruits, and spices. Art materials will be provided. All ages are welcome.

Paper Flower Ritual Procession

By Jessica Caponigro

12 pm

Visitors will be guided through a workshop of communal writing and intention setting, which is then made into paper flowers. As part of a larger series, the flowers will be attached to a larger structure on a later date (TBD), and walked through the street, then ritually destroyed.

Anecdotes Regarding Rollerblading

By A.J. Rombach

1 PM

AJ will read from “Anecdotes Regarding Rollerblading”—a text written about her relationship with the sport and the circumstances that encouraged her to commute solely with the in-line skates.

Requiem (in memoriam twelve extinct species)

By Steve Norton

2 pm

Requiem is an electronic composition. Its topic is extinction; its sound material consists of the voices of recently extinct bird and frog species.